THE CENTRE FOR STUDIES IN SOCIAL SCIENCES, CALCUTTA
R - 1, Baishnabghata Patuli Township
Kolkata - 700 094

Applications are invited for 4 positions of Research Assistants in the "Cataloguing and publication of an annotated check-list of the papers of Professor R.C.Majumdar (1888-1980), a doyen of nationalist historiography in India, in the custody of The Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta" project at the The Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta.

Qualifications: The candidates must have MA or equivalent degrees in Humanities or the Social Sciences. Candidates must be fluent in both Bangla and English. A solid understanding of modern Indian history (particularly the debates over modern historiography, colonial and postcolonial history, history of decolonization in South Asia, and the history of the stage and performing arts in postcolonial India) is preferable. Candidates with prior experience in archiving practices and cataloguing are encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities: Cataloguing of analogue and digital material at the CSSSC Archive units at Patuli and Jadunath Bhavan Museum and Resource Centre. If necessary the candidates may be trained in archival digitization and assigned tasks involving digitization of archival material.

The appointments will be for four months for a consolidated pay of INR 20,000/- per month.
Please email your application along with a covering letter and full CV to rajarshighose@cssscal.org within November 28, 2024.